

REFORMATION FESTIVAL 2017

Oct. 27-28, 2017

Spend this Reformation weekend learning and reflecting on the future of our faith from leading scholars, theologians and musicians.

Keynote Presentations:

The Viral Reformer and the Virtual Body of Christ: Learning from (and moving beyond) Luther in the Digital Age

Deanna Thompson, Professor of Religion, Hamline University

Thompson is author of numerous books, including "Crossing the Divide: Luther, Feminism, and the Cross," and most recently, "The Virtual Body of Christ in a Suffering World."

Saints and Sinners Sound the Glory: The Reformation's Musical Legacy

Don Saliers, William R. Cannon Distinguished Professor of Theology and Worship, Emeritus; Theologian-in-Residence, Emory Candler School of Theology

An accomplished musician, theologian and scholar of liturgics, Saliers is the author of 15 books on the relationship between theology and worship practices, as well as more than 150 articles, essays, chapters in books and book reviews. He co-authored "A Song to Sing, a Life to Live" with his daughter Emily Saliers, a member of the Indigo Girls.
