Confession and Forgiveness

Blessed be the Holy Trinity, one God,
who is eager to forgive us, longs to love us,
and tracks us down where we may be found.

Amen

Dear friends, we confess our sin before God and one another

(silence for reflection)

God of grace,

We confess that we have been distracted and have lost our way.
We confess that we have wandered away from you. We confess that we have failed to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with you.
Restore us to you and bring us home, so that all may rejoice in the party
you have prepared for us, through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

Amen.

Hear the good news! God's grace abounds!
In the name of Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven!
Come home to God's love for you and for all.
Thanks be to God!

Amen

Prayer of the Day

God of wrestling, we limp beneath the sun's warmth, with an eye on the future you see. Lead us beyond our fear to pray with our hands, feet, and heart, so that your will may be done in the world, through Jesus Christ, our suffering Savior. Amen

First Reading

Genesis 32:22-31

The same night [Jacob] got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

Word of God, Word of Life.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 37

I lift up my eyes | to the hills;

from where is my | help to come?

My help comes | from the Lord,
the maker of heav- | en and earth.

The Lord will not let your | foot be moved
nor will the one who watches over you | fall asleep.

Behold, the keep- | er of Israel
will neither slum- | ber nor sleep;

the Lord watches | over you;
the Lord is your shade at | your right hand;

the sun will not strike | you by day,
nor the | moon by night.

The Lord will preserve you | from all evil
and will | keep your life.

The Lord will watch over your going out and your | coming in,
from this time forth for- | evermore.

Gospel

Luke 18:1-8

The Holy Gospel reading in Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.' For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'" And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Word of God, Word of Life.

Thanks be to God.

Prayer

Holy God, gracious and merciful, you bring forth food from the earth and nourish your whole creation. Turn our hearts toward those who hunger in any way, that all may know your care; and prepare us now to feast on the bread of life, Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy.....we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come; your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
