Sunday at Normandale

Hymnals:

We use the ELW (red) and ACS (purple) hymnals. Both are located in the pew backs.

Prayground:

Located at the front of the sanctuary, our "prayground" is filled with quiet toys and comfy seating, available for the littlest in our midst and their caregivers.

Busy Bags

Are filled with quiet activities and are located outside the main entrance of the sanctuary.

Live Stream:

Take us with you! Visit normluth.org/livestream to watch Sunday worship wherever you are.

Ten Lepers-It Is Good to Give Thanks to the Lord

John Horman/Michael Bedford

Confession and Forgiveness

Blessed be the Holy Trinity, one God, who is eager to forgive us, longs to love us, and tracks us down where we may be found.

Amen

Dear friends, we confess our sin before God and one another

(silence for reflection)

God of grace,

We confess that we have been distracted and have lost our way. We confess that we have wandered away from you. We confess that we have failed to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with you. Restore us to you and bring us home, so that all may rejoice in the party you have prepared for us, through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

Amen.

Hear the good news! God's grace abounds! In the name of Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven! Come home to God's love for you and for all. Thanks be to God!

Amen

First Reading

2 Kings 5:1-3, 7-15c

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me." But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean." But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean'?" So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean. Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel."

Word of God, Word of Life.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 111

Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the Lord with | my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, in the | congregation.

Great are your | works, O Lord,
pondered by all who de- | light in them.

Majesty and splendor | mark your deeds,
and your righteousness en- | dures forever.

You cause your wonders to | be remembered;
you are gracious and full | of compassion.

You give food to | those who fear you,
remembering forev- | er your covenant.

You have shown your people the power | of your works
in giving them the lands | of the nations.

The works of your hands are faithful- | ness and justice;
all of your pre- | cepts are sure.

They stand fast forev- | er and ever,
because they are done in | truth and equity.

You sent redemption to your people and commanded your cove- | nant forever;
holy and awesome | is your name.

The fear of the Lord is the begin- | ning of wisdom;
all who practice this have a good understanding. God's praise en- | dures forever.

Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

The Holy Gospel reading in Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

Word of God, Word of Life.

Thanks be to God.

Prayers of the People

Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.
