Shop for a child's school supplies here

As summer arrives and school is far from our minds, another school year already sits on the horizon. In addition to our usual request for backpacks (full of school supplies), a new need has been identified: shoes! In particular, our neighbors at Normandale House would welcome gift cards for its students to purchase a new pair of shoes that fit, as they have identified a new resource for their backpacks with school supplies.

Please consider making a difference in a child's confidence and readiness for the new school year by selecting a student (or students)!
