A MATTER OF BALANCE
MANAGING CONCERNS ABOUT FALLS

October 5, 19 & November 9
Fellowship Hall | 10:45am

Luther Seminary Professor of Theology, Amy Marga will be presenting on what it means to be Lutheran and "white" in the world today. She will explore it's history, concepts and how it relates to the image of God, salvation and providence. Coffee and Donuts will be provided.

Tuesdays & Thursdays
October 7-30
9:30-11:30am | Virtual

Do you have concerns about falling? Normandale Center for Healing & Wholeness invites you to join us for this VIRTUAL class series led by our trained coaches. A Matter of Balance is an evidence-based program designed to reduce the fear of falling and improve activity levels among older adults living at home. You will learn to view falling as controllable, gain flexibility, and make changes to reduce your risk of falling. Registration is required. The $10 fee covers the cost of the class + workbook. If you need help or have questions, contact Carrie Kilberg at carrie@normandalecenter.org. Register online at https://yourjuniper.org/Courses/Register/4791.

Normandale's History on Display Outside the Sanctuary's Main Doors

In celebrating our 75th year, we graciously look back at the gifts of our past and how they brought us to the gifts we have today. Currently on display is mission & outreach and the ways we have served beyond these walls over the last 75 years. Thank you to our Heritage Committee and Bert Ledder for their dedication to showcasing our history.
